Turn Breast Cancer O.F.F. (Overlook Fall Festival) 4 – N2Pub copy

It's a great testimony of character that in 3 short years our Overlook neighborhood has been able to contribute over $20,000 to local women and families that are struggling in their fight with breast cancer. It's even more surprising when you consider this has been accomplished without the help of any large corporate donations. The funds have been raised from modest sponsorships by local businesses, event ticket sales, and the always popular silent auction.

The GoJenGo foundation (www.GoJenGo.org) has been a recipient of the bulk of the donations the past 2 years. It is with a heavy-heart that we report Jen Pagani lost her 6-year battle in February of this year. Our prayers and continued support of her foundation will keep her legacy thriving and celebrate the amazing and selfless work she put into helping others that were in the same fight, but were lacking the same support system.

For El Cuatro, we will again be hosting a 2-day affair, with a Chili-Cookoff, Homebrew Competition and Corn-Hole Tournament kicking-off the weekend on Friday, October 24th. We encourage all neighbors to enter their favorite chili (just bring your crockpot and an outlet will be provided to keep it warm), and enter a 2-person team for the Corn-Hole tourney. Jeff Colyer will again be managing the brackets, and it will be a great help to him if you get your team entered early. There is a $30 per team entry fee for corn-hole, and no charge for the chili cook-off. Last year's Corn-Hole winners received free Pizza for a year from Papa Johns!

This year's Saturday event will mark the return of Tara Scheyer & the Mud Puppy Band from Georgia. Scheduling conflicts kept her from attending last year, and we can't wait to see all the kids dancing again to her fun music. There will be entertainment, bounce houses, bands, balloons, food and drinks for kids and adults alike in addition to Pony Rides and more. As has been the custom we will have a set of esteemed judges judging kids and adults in a Costume Contest – so come in Costume – everyone has more fun in Costume!

Tickets will again be available online at www.SHE4Life.com, or we will setup at the front of the neighborhood to allow for tickets to be purchased in person. Tickets will be $25 per family or $30 on the day of. The festival is for Overlook residents and their friends! The festival is hosted by Overlook residents – so if you want to join the fun – email overlookfallfestival@hotmail.com.

Thanks for Helping it Grow!
